

UAMS Academic Affairs Policy – 3.3.8

UNIVERSITY OF ARKANSAS
FOR MEDICAL SCIENCES

Policy: University of Arkansas for Medical Sciences, Division of Academic Affairs
Subject: Active Duty Military Tuition Residency Exception
Number: 3.3.8

Date Approved (Council of Deans, Provost): October 17, 2018

Date Effective: October 17, 2018

Last Review/Revision: March 14, 2024

Next Review/Revision: March 14, 2026

PURPOSE

This policy was created in compliance with University of Arkansas Board of Trustees Policy 520.7 Fees for Veterans and Military Personnel.

DEFINITIONS

Official Arkansas Residency Classification – This status refers to a student’s official, legal classification of Arkansas resident or non-resident as defined in UAMS Academic Affairs Policy 3.2.1 and UA Board of Trustees Policy 520.8.

Tuition Residency Exception – A tuition residency exception allows a student to be charged tuition at a rate different from her/his Official Arkansas Residency Classification based upon an approved scenario. The Bursar’s and Financial Aid Offices use tuition residency exceptions in the application of tuition charges and packaging of financial aid awards. Students receiving a tuition residency exception will appear as out-of-state/non-resident for all other reporting purposes because a tuition residency exception does not impact a student’s official Arkansas Residency Classification.

Dependent – The qualifying dependent child must be considered a dependent child by the Internal Revenue Service and cannot attain the age of 24 during the calendar year to receive a tuition discount for any term within that calendar year per the Internal Revenue Service.

POLICY

UAMS shall provide a tuition residency exception to all students who are veterans or active duty members of the armed forces, and their spouses and dependents, in accordance with

UAMS Academic Affairs Policy – 3.3.8

Section 702 of the Veterans Access, Choice and Accountability Act of 2014, 38 U.S.C. 3679(c), as amended, Arkansas Code Annotated § 6- 60-205, and UA BOT 520.7.

PROCEDURE

Prospective students must speak with their admission’s officers during the application process to ensure they are correctly coded as “Active Duty” or spouse/dependent in the GUS Student Information System. Documentation of active duty and spouse/dependent status is required and must be submitted to the admissions officer at least one week prior to the official UAMS start date for the term in which the tuition residency exception is to be effective. Current students must speak with the Veterans Services Coordinator in the Office of the University Registrar to submit documentation by the same deadline. Requests received after the deadline will be reviewed case-by-case, and may not become effective until the following term. Tuition residency exceptions may not be applied retroactively for prior terms.
